

Contractors may notify the OIG of evidence that a principal, employee, agent, or subcontractor has violated the civil False Claims Act or Federal criminal law (fraud, conflict of interest, bribery, or gratuity violations) concerning the award, performance, or closeout of a contract or any related subcontract. The individual completing this form must be an officer or manager within the company for whom this report is being made and empowered to speak for the company by filing this report. Submission of this electronic form automatically generates a confirmation email. Receipt of this email confirms that the OIG received the information provided.

If the information you wish to provide does not fall within these guidelines, please call the DOI Inspector General Hotline.
